

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

Volume 16

December 2016

Issue 7

The mission of Silver Threads Quilt Guild shall be to further interest in quilting, promote education, contribute to community charitable causes and encourage the preservation of quilts and the art of quilting.

President's Notes

Merry Christmas everyone! I can't believe Christmas is almost here. Where did the year go and what a fun year we have had! We had a really nice Thanksgiving meeting with good attendance and great food thanks to our hostesses. We have finally gotten our website in the works and we got to see a preview at the meeting. By now, you have received an e-mail from Pat Miller with the website address that you can use to view it as it progresses. Feel free to make any comments and suggestions about the site. I hope you all will have a wonderful Christmas with family and friends!

Blessings,
Kathie

Silver Thread Quilt Guild Meeting

November 15, 2016

Introduction of guests and new members: Morag Hunt was a guest of Pat Miller, and Susan McNeill rejoins our membership.

Sunshine and Shadows: Linda Hunt is happy to be back. Becky Mayo's mom is on hospice care.

The minutes were approved.

The Treasurer's Report shows $██████. There is no new Quilt Show report.

Take Note

Meeting Location
Creede Baptist Church
Date: December 13
Time: 10:00 a.m.

December Program
Notions Gift Exchange
($10-$15 Limit)

Hostesses
Kristin Steed, Pat Miller

December Birthday
Irene Garrett December 17

Ongoing Business: Becky Dixon from Masterprint and Web Design gave us a preview of the website. Kathy will email us the web address when she gets it. After reviewing the site, please email Kathy your comments. There was discussion on whether our site should link to a possible Pinterest site or our Facebook page. Please bring your pros and cons for Pinterest or Facebook linking at the next meeting.

New Business: Raffle Quilt proceeds donation report: $730 to the Creede Fire Department, $250 to Mineral County Public Health for the Food Bank, $250 to the Conour Animal Shelter in Monte Vista, $730 to the South Fork Fire Department. All funds have been distributed.

The December meeting date has been changed to December 13 to avoid holiday complications. There will be a holiday gift exchange (limit $10-15) and potluck! The gifts should be notions.

There was no Old Business.

There were only a few Standing Committee reports:

Community Service donated 15 quilts, two pillows and one doll to Ronald McDonald House in Denver. They also had fabric pieces donated to them for future projects.

Continuing Education reminds those doing the Block of the Month to keep going on the project. No further programs are scheduled until April.

Categories for the quilt show of 2018 were announced and will be included in the newsletter.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Linda Woods showed Beatles items she got while in England that she wants to use for a future quilt.
