President's Comments

Happy New Year Quilt friends! We had so much fun at our Christmas Meeting. I wish all of you could have been there. The weather cooperated very nicely and we all enjoyed the good food, gift exchange and friendship. Now it is time to begin our new year. I am excited to see all the great things that are coming up for us this year.

Happy quilting,

Kathie

Silver Thread Quilt Guild Minutes

December 13, 2016

Sunshine and Shadows: December 21, 2016 is Tricia MacDonald's 50th wedding anniversary. Kathie's husband's cataract removal surgery in Durango was a success.

Our next meeting is January 17, 2017 in South Fork.

The minutes were approved without correction.

The Treasurer's report shows $ [redacted] in the general account, with $ [redacted] spent last month. There is no new Quilt Show account report.

Ongoing Business: We are requested when possible to look over the website. Possible additions to the site discussed were to have thee Quilt Show officers listed, the Quilt Show categories and possibly have Pinterest connect to each members Pinterest page rather than have the STQG curate a Pinterest site for the guild. If anyone has ideas or art for the logo, please contact Kathie Jones so she can forward it to Becky Dixon, rather than contact Becky directly.

New Business: The Quilt Show categories were announced and reviewed.

There was no Old Business. There were only a few Standing Committee Reports:

Community Service got another fabric donation. Anne Strong was also given a donation of fabric and quilt tops and she'll bring them to the next meeting.

Hospitality recognized one birthday this month.

The meeting was adjourned, and the notion exchange commenced!

Anne Strong, Secretary Programs

Block of the Month

I hope you are progressing on the Peace Cottage quilt. I must confess that I haven't started yet but now that it is cold it is a great time to get caught up. Our goal is to have the quilt done by July. Happy sewing ~Penny
