

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

The mission of the Silver Threads Quilt Guild shall be to further interest in quilting, promote education, contribute to community charitable causes and encourage the preservation of quilts and the art of quilting.

Monthly Notes –

Creative Quilts from Pre-printed Panels will be the program for our August meeting. Cyndi McChesney will present information and a trunk show on quilts created from panels.

The next day Cyndi will present a five hour workshop, “Creating Unique Quilts from Pre-printed Panels”. We will explore how to work with different types of panels, how to create blocks and settings to compliment panels, basic graphing, layout, and design.

The annual STQG Retreat will be Thursday-Saturday, August 23-25, at the Beaver Creek Youth Camp in South Fork. I hope you are planning to attend. It is a nice time to relax and sew with other quilters. You may stay at the camp or join us for the day(s).

I will present a class on the mini curve ruler at the retreat. Please let me know if you would like to participate in the class and if you need a “Mini Curve Ruler” (pennylousnyder@gmail.com) ASAP so I can order them. It is fun, easy, and uses no pins. Look for another e-mail on the mini curve project and supply list.

Quilt Show Information

Hello from your missing in action quilt show director! So sorry I have been absent of any leadership for the 2020 quilt show. Life in Texas has gotten in the way. We decided it would be a good move to sell our house in Rockport and move closer to our daughter and family in the Tyler area. Of course, we didn't realize all these plans would circumvent our plans to be in Colorado this summer. Right now we are on schedule to move mid-July, and hopefully will be able to get out of this heat and visit Colorado in August or September. Thanks to all for carrying on. I understand from Beth that groups are getting together to make things for the Treasure Trove. Carolyn and I have been in touch with each other and we promise the show will go on and with everyone's help, we will make it a great show. Thanks for all your support.

Sheralyn

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Minutes
July 9, 2019
South Fork, CO

The meeting was called to order by Guild President, Pat Miller. We were happy to have one new member, Deborah Gooch from Ponca City, Oklahoma in attendance. She is a retired school secretary, has a home in South Fork, and works at Fun Valley. Joyce Osborne introduced a guest, Lynda Webster.

Sunshine and Shadow news:

- Shadow – Please continue to pray for the family of Zack Jones, who drowned in the Rio Grande near Creede. His body has not been recovered.
- Shadow – Please pray for former guild member, Sharon Woodard, who is hospitalized.
- Shadow – Deborah's friend, Robin, is dealing with pancreatic cancer.
- Sunshine – Carolyn Flood is here for the summer.
- Sunshine – Beverly Sandvik has arrived in Creede as well.
- Sunshine – Betty Geis's son, Bart, is doing so well he doesn't need his last chemo treatment.

Kristin Steed reported the general treasury account balance is $11,016.92. The Quilt Show account has a balance of $13,115.90, and the raffle account has a balance of $7,728.73.

Standing Committee Reports:

- The Executive Board appreciates all new and returning committee heads.
- Advertising-Sheralyn Humble. No report. Sheralyn and Bob Humble have sold their Rockport house and purchased a home in Tyler, Texas. They are in the process of moving and look forward to being here later this summer.
- Charlotte Peacock will continue to head up Continuing Education. Please contact her if you have ideas for speakers, workshops, etc.
- Vi Koch will continue with Community Service. She and Irene Garrett have worked hard to purchase fabric and have sorted it and made kits for members to pick up and construct a quilt top. Each kit includes ample fabric and a quick and easy pattern. The kits will be available at our meetings.
- Carolyn Flood has taken over the job of Historian. She is busy learning the computer program. Outgoing Historian, Joyce Osborne, brought the last book to the meeting for all to see.
- Hospitality-Tammy Hamel. Please contact Tammy if you know of anyone who would appreciate a card or note from the guild.
- Newsletter-Penny Snyder has taken over this job. If you have information for the newsletter please email it to her no later than the 25th of the month. If you would like a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to you, please let her know.
- Quilt Show-Sheralyn Humble and Carolyn Flood are the directors for the show. The main item of discussion was vendor facilities. The fire department will no longer allow any venue to use the underground fire station but will allow use of the building across the street. The last time we used that building there were 6 vendors which didn't give the vendors ample space to show their merchandise. For the 2020 show, we will be limiting the building to 4 vendors. There was some discussion about possibly putting some vendors in the community center where we have the show but it was decided the vendors would probably prefer not to be split up.

Silver Thread Quilt Guild Minutes
July 9, 2019
Continued

Old Business:

After a lengthy discussion about class fees being paid partially or in full by the guild, a motion was made by Kristin Steed and seconded by Janice Torres that for all continuing education classes, each participant will pay $20 toward the cost of the class and the guild will pay the remainder of the cost from Continuing Education funds. The motion passed.

July 31, 2019 there will be a Judy Niemeyer class taught at the Chapel of the South Fork.
August 20, 2019 Cyndi McChesney will be giving the program at our meeting. It will be about using panels and quilts and she will present a trunk show. On August 21, 2019 she will be teaching a class at the Creede Baptist Church at 10:00 am on using panels in a quilt. Check her website (CedarRidgeQuilting.com) to learn more about the class.

The guild retreat will be August 22-24, 2019 at the Beaver Creek Youth Camp. At present, only 9 members are signed up and we need at least 11 so please consider attending. The cost will be $35 per person per night. Contact Karen Ferguson for information and to sign up.

Penny Snyder and Beth Kendall will be teaching quilting classes at Woodcarvers in Creede, July 13-18. Hopefully the classes will be well attended. Participating in events like this is good PR for the guild and our future quilt shows.

The meeting was adjourned.

Joyce Osborne won the drawing for the hostess gift.
Show and Tell participants were Lynda Webster, Charlotte Peacock and Penny Snyder.
After lunch members enjoyed a White Elephant Exchange.

Secretary
