

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

Volume 17

September 2017

Issue 6

The mission of Silver Threads Quilt Guild shall be to further interest in quilting, promote education, contribute to community charitable causes and encourage the preservation of quilts and the art of quilting.

Presidents' Notes

Happy Fall Quilters,

The trees are turning yellows and oranges and occasionally we wake up to frosted high mountain tops. It's so pretty. We had a wonderful meeting in South Fork this month with Kathy's Fabric Trunk showing us all sorts of new fabrics and fabric panels for wonderful ideas for projects for the rest of the year.

October 17th, meeting and SEW DAY. Bring your sewing machines for a few hours of Treasure Trove and Charity Quilt sewing. Bring any kits you have cut out, or fabric that you would like to donate to kits for these wonderful projects. The December meeting will be one week early December 12, 2017 to not conflict with Christmas plans at The Chapel of the South Fork.

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Minutes
September 19, 2017
South Fork, CO
10:00 a.m.

The meeting was opened by Guild president, Beth Kendall. Guests Jean Henson and Pam Rowe were introduced. New members Sherry Paxton and Pam Rowe (quick work Shelby!) were introduced and welcomed.

Sunshine news:

- Linda Woods has a new grandson with another new grandbaby due in December.
- Dawn Reitz will be a grandma again soon (Feb).
- Sheralyn Humble's home in Rockport, TX made it thru Hurricane Harvey with just a little roof and water damage.

· Kathy Jennings made it thru Hurricane Irma on the west coast of Florida just fine, but described it as “quite the experience”.

· Shirley Moody had knee surgery and lots of physical therapy, but is now hiking in the mountains.

Shadow news:

· Beverly Sandvik’s home in Houston did not fair so well in Harvey. The first floor of her home was destroyed.

· Karen Ferguson was in surgery on the 19th for a bone spur on her foot.

The next guild meeting is October 17, 2017 in South Fork at 10:00 a.m.

The minutes for August were approved with no corrections.

The general treasury account balance is $ [REDACTED] which does not include 2 checks of [REDACTED] each from businesses for advertisement fees that aren’t accounted for on this balance.

Janice Torres reported no change in the quilt show account. There are two new vendors, Alamosa Quilt Co. and Durango Quilt Co. that will contribute an increase to the account of [REDACTED]. Kathy from Kathy’s Fabric Trunk in Del Norte is also a definite vendor for next year’s quilt show. Janice also reported that the 2018 quilt show vendors will be back in the fire house.

New Business:

It was agreed to move the December meeting in South Fork one week earlier to December 12, 2017.

There is still an opening for the Continuing Education Standing Committee for 2018 programs. We do have a good start on what to do. With so many talented guild members, it was suggested to have one big outside instructor supplemented with other classes provided by members of the guild. Beth Kendall also suggested that if we have Eileen Urbanek teach a Judy Neimeyer project, it would be good to allow members to learn a new technique doing something smaller such as a placemat vs. a huge quilt project.

Standing Committee Reports:

Advertising – Sheralyn Humble was not present, but we have two new advertisers: hopefully we will find out who they are next meeting.

Community Service – Susan Wolfrey and Vi Koch – Susan Wolfrey suggested keeping donations local or at least have some more personal idea of where they go. If quilts are sent to Houston for relief, maybe members or churches in Houston could be contacted for names of people in need. Shirley suggested Women in Crises and said she will do more research when she returns to Houston. Beth suggested posting sizes and types of quilts needed to the website so members can see what to make. Kathy from Kathy’s Fabric Trunk said the new nursing home in Del Norte needs clothing covers.

Continuing Education – Open – Discussed under new business.

Note: Charlotte Peacock volunteered after the meeting to fill this opening.

Historian – Joyce Osborn – The scrapbook is up to date. Joyce had it at the meeting and it is great!

Hospitality – Carolyn Flood – Hostesses are needed for the December meeting. It is a potluck or that meeting so hostesses are just required to bring plates, silverware, drinks and desserts.

Membership – Shelby Bonner – There are 38 paid members plus our two new members Sherry and Pam.

Newsletter – Pat Miller is doing a spectacular job!

Quilt Show Report – Per Penny Snyder, no regular quilt show meetings until next May. Vi Koch and Diane Singer showed the spectacular raffle quilt that Diane Singer had just finished quilting. It is gorgeous and a true testimony to the talent we have in the guild. The quilt show theme is “Along the Silver Thread”. Kathy Jones and Beth Kendall will get the quilt displayed next year in both Creede and Lake City to help promote the quilt show.

Upcoming Meetings and Classes:

October 17 – South Fork – Bring sewing machines to work on Treasure Trove and/or Charity quilt sewing.

November 21 – Creede – Treasure Trove and/or Charity quilt sewing.

December 12 – Pot Luck Luncheon

August 23 – 25, 2018 Quilt Retreat at Beaver Creek Youth Camp. This retreat will run Thursday – Saturday. We had a wonderful time at this year’s retreat. Please try to come!

Show and Tell:

Dawn Reitz, Janice Torres, Tammy Hamel and Kathie Jones for Sheralyn Humble showed an assortment of the many things that were made for the Treasure Trove at the quilt retreat in August. There were little fabric baskets of different sizes, microwave bowls, appliqué birds for wall hangings, and accordion pouches. Janice Torres recommended Zentangle online to find neat patterns for appliqué.

Joyce Osborn had four baby quilt tops for a Women’s Resource Center. Vi Koch showed a cute child’s quilt top with cats. Susan Wolfrey showed a wall hanging. She also showed a wrap around skirt as an example of something to share with teenage/school age girls to make clothes economically.

Beth Kendall quilted nine Quilt of Valor quilts plus three other quilts in 6-7 days. Phew!

Shelby Bonner won the door prize, Moda Frivols.

The meeting was adjourned and a wonderful lunch was provided by Beth Kendall, Shirley Moody and Dawn Reitz.

A fun trunk show was provided by Kathy of Kathy’s Fabric Trunk in Del Norte. She showed us some new seasonal kits and fabric. Chenille is back!
