Presidents's Comments

Hi Quilters,

I missed seeing all of you at our November meeting, thanks to Tammy for covering for me so I could attend the gigantic Houston Quilt Show. It was wonderful to see so many amazing quilts.

Our December 11 meeting in South Fork will feature a White Elephant Exchange, which should be a lot of fun.

I wish everyone a merry Christmas with lots of snow.

Beth

The meeting opened with an introduction of guest Susan McNeil. The sunshine was Kathie Jones had her grandkids for awhile. Charlotte Peacock went on a great trip to Europe and Washington D.C., The shadows were: Betty Geis' daughter Becky is still battling cancer. Please keep her in your prayers for her upcoming treatment. Also Betty's son Bart was diagnosed with cancer. Again our thoughts and prayers are for this family. Vi's husband Leonard has shingles.

Standing committee reports:

There was only two standing committee reports given. community service, and continuing education.

Vi Koch reported the following for community service:

Found in storage, there were 26 adult quilts, 12 lap quilts, 13 twin sized quilts, 1 queen sized quilt, and 21 children's quilts (4 baby quilts and 17 kids quilts).

On October 8, 14 adult quilts were given to Mountain View Estates Care Center. On October 23, 9 adult quilts were given as well as a check presented to Homelake in Monte Vista. On November 5, 15 children's quilts and 3 adult quilts were given to Tu Casa in Alamosa. These quilts (those given at Tu Casa) were given in honor of Patty Zion from Wray, Colorado who donated a lot of fabric to us. Many thanks to Anne Strong and Beth McFadden for their assistance to Vi Koch so that these quilts could be washed and go to so many.

Six more children's quilts will be given to the Ronald McDonald home in Colorado Springs.

It was suggested that in the future we make adult twin quilts approximately 68x84". Children's quilts approximately 48x60". Baby quilts can be smaller. Nursing homes seem to be in need of bed quilts. We do have some backing fabric in storage. Vi will also be looking into purchasing large backing fabric for the quilts we make. She also showed us some things we could make for the nursing homes. More information on this later.

Continuing Education—Charlotte Peacock:

This is the winner of the 2018 Silver Threads Quilt Guild Raffle Quilt. His name is Brian Lamorboux and he lives in Colorado Springs. He was thrilled that he won and said his grandmother collects quilts so he is aware of their value. He was in Creede when we were selling tickets at our first venue and he remembered that I sold him the ticket.
