

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

September, 2021

The mission of the Silver Threads Quilt Guild shall be to further interest in quilting, promote education, contribute to community charitable causes and encourage the preservation of quilts and the art of quilting.

Monthly Note - - -

I was reminded today that we submit our quilts in 10 days. I hope you are all ready. I'm still trying to finish a couple quilts which is why the newsletter is a little late.

For those who did not attend the retreat, you missed a good time sewing with other members. It is a great opportunity to get to know our guild members better. Many worked on Treasure Trove items and some worked on other projects. It is fun to see what others are working on and learn new skills, too. Hope you will plan to join us next year on August 25, 26, and 27, 2022 for our annual retreat. The cost will remain at $35 per night next year.

Please look for a Quilt Show Newsletter early next week. It will include important information and reminders on guild activities as we prepare and host our biennial quilt show. I'm confident the show will not disappoint anyone. If you haven't been in Creede the past few days, you have missed our banners as you enter town from the east and the west. Fabulous job—Vi Koch!

Get plenty of rest the next ten days as you will need it during quilt show week, September 13-19. Take a deep breath, relax, and keep smiling!

Penny Snyder, Newsletter Editor

Silver Thread Quilt Guild South Fork Meeting Minutes Tuesday, August 17, 2021 10:00 a.m.

The membership meeting opened at 10:00 a.m. There were five guests, all from Texas. They included Mimi Phillips, Nan Johnson, Laura Hooks, Sharyn Miller and Berdell Johnson. It was a pleasure to have them all attend!

There were two big shadows shared. June Deatherage passed away July 25th due to heart failure. She is sorely missed. Several people have volunteered to finish some of her quilts for the upcoming quilt show. Beth Kendall has been diagnosed with very early breast cancer. She has had a lumpectomy and meets with a radiologist in Montrose next Thursday, the 26th, about her radiation schedule. We all have Beth in our thoughts and in our prayers.

Penny Snyder shared two sunshines. Penny's sister is coming from Kansas to visit. Her sister has never been to Creede. Penny and Mike will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary also.

Anne Strong called the business meeting to order. Carolyn Flood moved to approve the July 2021 meeting minutes as published. Kristin Steed seconded the motion. The motion passed.

Carolyn Flood has volunteered to take on Beth Kendall's treasurer position for the present time. Carolyn reported the general guild account for August has a balance of $6,054.06. The quilt raffle account has a balance of $7,248.45. The quilt show account has a balance of $7,714.52. Raffle ticket sales have totaled $3,717.00 to date. Carolyn showed the totals for the raffle ticket sales at each event or location. It was noted that the sales are far better when the guild members are present and responsible for the sales. The last venue for ticket sales is Kathy's Birthday Celebration in Del Norte on August 20-21.

Standing Committee Reports:

- a. Advertising – A volunteer is needed for this position.
- b. Community Service – No official report, but Pat Miller shared a story from Logger Days. Tyler Off, the Fire Chief for South Fork, stopped to give some feedback about the quilts donated for children needing rescue or transport. He said they had responded to a car accident involving a mom and her little girl. The 6 year old was quite distraught but the quilt given to her for comfort calmed her down.
- c. Continuing Education – No report. However, Kristin Steed and Pat Miller have volunteered for this committee.
- d. Historian – Carolyn Flood reported that all photo posts are up to date on the website.
- e. Hospitality – Irene Garrett was not present but a sign up sheet was passed around for upcoming hostesses. The hostesses for August 17th were Penny Snyder, Betty Geis and Winona Renner. The hostesses for September 21 are Irene Garrett and Vi Koch.
- f. Membership – Beth Kendall passed out the current membership directory. She will email the latest directory also.
- g. Newsletter – If anyone has anything to share in the newsletter, please get the information to Penny Snyder.
- h. Quilt Show –
  - o Penny Snyder has graciously taken on the quilt show in Beth's stead. Penny reported there will be no appraiser this year. No one was available.
  - o Please include the fabric write up and a fabric scrap with any challenge quilt entry. The challenge category uses the antique fabric that Donna Skvarla donated.
  - o Penny reported that the majority of the quilt entries are either in the bed (large) quilt category or lap quilt category due to size restrictions. That leaves just a handful in the other categories. Penny and Sheralyn Humble asked if it would be better to place quilts in the category that they best fit vs. worrying about size. The consensus was that members preferred to have quilts judged or displayed in the most appropriate category and remove the size restrictions for this show.

- Carolyn Flood encouraged members to continue selling raffle tickets. She also shared a handout with the organizations that have received donations from the guild in the past. The guild must make the donations from the raffle ticket sales by the first part of October. Carolyn asked everyone to write their top three choices for recipients down and turn them in to her or Anne Strong.
- Sheralyn Humble encouraged members to continue making items for the Treasure Trove. It is a big money maker for the guild. Treasure Trove money goes to the quilt show account. Barbara Luning shared some wonderful pincushions she had made from cups and saucers she had collected over the years.
- All members will wear masks at the show. Masks will be available at the welcome table as well as hand sanitizer. Berdell suggested making gloves available for visitors. We all agreed that was a wonderful idea. Tammie Sundin is in charge of the welcome desk. The welcome desk sells tickets for the show and collects zip codes for all visitors. The zip codes help get grant money and helps with the lodging tax money. Also, if members which to sell any of their quilts, please have your quilt info marked at turn in to show the quilt is for sale. Interested buyers may ask the welcome desk if a quilt is for sale. The front desk will pass potential buyer information to the quilter. It is the quilter's responsibility to contact the buyer and transact the sale. No quilts can leave the show until all quilts are taken down at the end of the show.
- Please bring bins for your quilts.
- Carolyn reminded everyone to bake cookies to sell at the show. Place 2-3 cookies in a bag and mark the type of cookie on the bag and if there are nuts.
- Penny will be sending an email with quilt numbers for quilt entries. Quilt numbers are also used for Viewer's Choice voting.
- There will be a show walk-thru with Diane Singer on Friday, Sep 17th, at 8:00 a.m. (This has been changed to Thursday, September 16th at 3 p.m.)

Old Business:

- a. New member updates - Facebook posts for the guild on Creede Happenings and South Fork Happenings have been approved. A beginner quilt class is still in the works sometime after the quilt show. Membership applications will be available at the quilt show for anyone interested.
- b. Continuing Education – Stitch – Pat Miller reported that it will be sometime in spring of 2022 when we will have a program by Stitch.
- c. Quilt Show Program sales – All program ads were turned into Penny to get them to the printer.

New business:

- a. Budget – Anne Strong will have a budget ready to present at next month's meeting.
- b. Filling Standing Committee offices – Advertising (in guild newsletter) is vacant and needs a volunteer.
- c. The retreat at Beaver Creek is August 26-28. A sign up sheet for attendance and breakfast Friday and Saturday mornings was passed around. Right now, there are 11 people signed up. The fee to stay overnight is $35/night and is payable upon arrival. Participants bring their own lunches. Kristin and Pat volunteered to provide coffee and tea for the entire stay. Penny and Tammie will make dinner arrangements for dinner out. Bring your own bedding and towels.

The business meeting was adjourned with a motion from Joyce Osborn and a second from Sheralyn Humble. We shared many Show and Tell items. Tammie Sundin won the door prize.
