

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

February 2025

Monthly Note

Happy February,

Still looks like the Silver Thread hasn't gotten too much snow this winter. What projects are you all working on in the new year? Last month I attended the Arizona Quilters Guild show in Mesa, it was a nicely done and very big show! This month The Modern Quilt Guild is hosting is Quilt Con here in Phoenix. I am excited to go see all the amazing quilts on display, and hopefully meet some of the fun quilters I follow online there in person. There are some travel updates in this newsletter, one from Kristin here and some pics of Emily's and my visit to Hamilton.

President's Note

Greetings from Cabo San Lucas where the whales are breaching and blowing, the breeze is making the palm fronds sing, the sun is shining, Pat is sunbathing and I am beach combing. I'm sure there's inspiration for a quilt design here somewhere. By Feb. 9th we'll be back in the freezing temperatures so we'll soak up the warm sun now. Happy Quilting

Kristin

Quilt Town

Emily and I spent the best day visiting Missouri Star quilting in Hamilton Missouri one Saturday last month. It so exceeded my expectations. There were so many stores, each unique and beautifully stocked everyone was so friendly and helpful. I think we visited 15 quilt stores in our half day there, as well as some other fun local shops. I think it was very much worth the day trip and so fun if you get the chance to visit.
