

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

June 2025

Monthly Note

Happy June,

Please note quilt show entry forms are due July 1st! It's time to pay your dues if you haven't sent those in yet. Also please review the rules and bylaws attached with the newsletter this month as we continue our discussions on the guild.

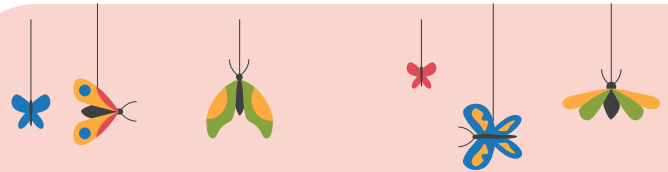

I got to see a few of you when i was in Creede for less than 24 hours over Memorial Day weekend! I've included a few pics of some antique quilts I saw last month traveling in Ireland. Sounds like some of you saw the documentary The Quilters on Netflix in Breckenridge last month, if you haven't seen it yet it's worth a watch!

President's Note

Hello quilting friends -

The seven of us who went to Breckenridge, and then on to Golden to the quilting museum, had a great time. I highly recommend the experience and hope you all get the opportunity to go someday. We ate some good food and watched “The Quilters” and “Secondhand Lions” (an oldie, but goody).

I have asked Christa to attach a copy of our STQG Bylaws and Standing Rules to this email newsletter so that we can all be reminded about what is in these documents. These were last completely updated in 2020 and have been partially revised over the last five years as indicated in the documents.

In order to help us get a firm grasp of our current preferences and choices as an organization we are creating a paper and pencil survey. It will be ready by the June meeting and we will be allot time to fill it out at the meeting when most members are present. If you are unable to attend, I can email you a copy of the survey after that meeting. You could print it out and mail in your responses. ALL members who receive the newsletter are invited to complete the survey.

Thank you in advance for participating in our decision making processes,

Kristin Steed

Ulster Folk Museum

I got to spend 2 weeks in Ireland at the beginning of May and one of the highlights was a visit to the Ulster Folk Museum where i saw so many beautiful antique quilts.
