

Silver Threads Quilt Guild Newsletter

November 2025

Monthly Note

Happy November,
It really feels like the year is going to be over before we know it! I still have some holiday sewing and projects i got at the show i hope to get done in time for gifting this year. What sort of projects are on your winter sewing list this year?

Christa

Show Updates

The Quilt Show and Raffle Quilt task force has not been able to meet as of yet. But i hope to get a dialog started or survey out for some show category ideas in the next week or so. If you have any ideas for a category you'd like to suggest please send them to Christa.

Holiday Meeting Festivities

- Kristin will host a Quilting Bingo Game
- Cookie Exchange or those ladies that would like to bring home a selection of Christmas cookies (and who wouldn't!!), please plan on bringing your favorite homemade Christmas cookie to share.
- Gift Exchange Those that would like to play our "collect your Christmas gift" game, please bring a wrapped quilting/sewing gift worth not more than $20 and let the fun begin!
- Becky Collier is working on her Christmas ornaments and is currently taking orders if anyone wants to place an order with her. Contact her directly.

Thanks from South Fork

Veterinary Clinic

Dear Mariette and members of Silver Threads Quilt Guild,

We cannot thank you enough for your generous donation to our pet rescue fund. We really needed that donation and the pets (and people who help them) are so appreciative.

In 2024, we rescued 24 cats and 3 dogs (maybe more because I didn't keep track as well as I do now! 😊) and in 2025, so far, we've rescued (and provided vet care) for 26 cats and 10 dogs. We could NOT do this without your financial support. Thanks!!
Dr. Jodi

Meetings

One more piece of info, the officers have decided that until we can figure out our particular situation, we will take turns leading the meetings (so we have a semblance of structure). Mariette will be leading the November meeting. April will be Pat and May will be Tammy's turn.
